

First Shoplift At Walgreen's Nets Westlaker

Ronald A. Steffens was apprehended by Walgreen's Drugstore clerk Bobby Tabert last Tuesday, eight days after the store opened, on a shoplifting charge.

Steffens, 29, a lithographer, was released on $250 bail bonds after he admitted taking an electric shaver and a box of wafers reducing tablets with a total value of $21.75 from the 395 South Mayfair street store.

The 180-pounder was stopped after a short run in front of the Grant store by the 23-year-old clerk who received aid from Manager George Jeffers, 31, 43 Brockridge avenue, who helped to escort Steffens back to the store.

Tabert picked up the razor and reducing wafers when they dropped from the hurrying Steffens' coat. Tabert stated he saw Steffens walk by two manned cash registers on his way out.

Steffens, 72 Crestline avenue, told police, "I didn't know what to do with the razor because no cashiers were around so I walked to the back of the store. I put it in my coat on the way out."

Steffens appeared in Municipal Court yesterday morning.

WESTLAKE WOMAN REPORTS ATTACK TRY ON BELMAR

Judith Anderson, 20-year-old housewife who lives at 68 Belmar avenue, told police a man attempted to attack her Monday at 11 p.m. in the rear of the building as she was taking furniture from her apartment to a storage locker.

She described the man as one would an "overgrown college boy." She said the man was in his mid-40's, about 5-8 and 170 pounds, with receding hair and wore glasses and a beige-striped sweater.

Mrs. Anderson said she had been taking furniture from her apartment to the storage locker and on the last trip saw the man walk down an adjacent alley. She thought she recognized him and smiled.

She was arranging articles in the storage locker when she turned and saw the man blocking the entrance. He grabbed her by the neck and attempted to choke her. She screamed and the man took flight. Her scream was heard by off-duty policeman Ralph Warren, who lives at 62 Belmar avenue, and he notified the police station.

Officer James Bergstrom said the area where the attempted attack occurred was well lighted.

Marine Pfc Jacklyn H. Lucas, 17, was the youngest man ever to receive the Medal of Honor. At Iwo Jima he fell on two grenades to save his comrades—and survived.

only 130 school age children are living in this type of residence and 15 percent of these attend parochial school.

Pedemonte said his building would consist of 39 studio apartments, 91 one-bedroom, and 13 two-bedroom apartments.

After hearing both sides for more than an hour and a half the commission voted to approve the rezoning. Absent were Chairman Richard Dwyer and Roy Foster. Those approving were Masini, Art Colvin and Schaeffer.

In other action, the commission:

1. Approved a use permit filed by Paul G. Selmi, 39 Wellington avenue, to establish a body and fender shop on property located on Vista Grande avenue No. 1 at the regular meeting Tuesday night.

2. Approved a use permit filed by Amco Sign Company, 284 Donohoe street, Palo Alto, to erect a 48 foot high roof display on the Sterling Furniture Company building at 275 Lake Merced boulevard.

3. Granted a use permit to Mary Stevens for a day Child's Care and Nursery School at the end of Station avenue, and located at 98 West Cavour street.

4. Approved petition filed by E. Cardellini, 6185 Mission street, to rezone lot 24, Block 3, Crocker Estate Tract Subdivision No. 1, located south of Mission street on Crocker avenue, from an R-1 to a C-1 (commercial) district.

Members accepted a tentative map of L. H. Comer, 159 Santa Cruz avenue, to subdivide a portion of lot 116, property located at 131 and 135 Oliver street; and belonging to the West End Homestead Association.

FLYING SQUIRRELS

The flying squirrel does not fly, but glides, according to the National Automobile Club. Glides of up to 125 feet have been recorded.

The largest gold mining dredge in the United States is in Hammonton, California, 11 miles east of Marysville, reports the California State Automobile Association.

FIRST proposed 20 years ago, the plan for a four-county Skyline National Parkway is finally off the ground. Supervisors from San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties met in San Mateo to launch the first phase of the parkway project which authorizes an engineering study. On hand for the contract signing were (seated L. to R.) William C. Blake, San Francisco board of supervisors; Charles T. Blair, vice president of Wilsey and Ham Engineers and Planners which will conduct the study; William Werder, chairman of the San Mateo County board of supervisors. Standing are Jack E. Van Zandt, project manager and staff member of the engineering and planning firm; Walter G. Merrill, Santa Cruz County supervisor; Robert S. Reed of Wilsey and Ham who worked with the counties in obtaining support of the project, and Frank A. Molter, associate planner from Santa Clara county.

Woman Unconscious After Car Flips On Traffic Island

Allen J. Pettigrew, 447 South Mayfair avenue, found himself upside down in his car after his left wheel struck the traffic island at San Jose avenue and Alemany boulevard, Wednesday at 2 a.m.

Pettigrew, a truck driver for the Lucky Layer Brewing Company, said he "miscalculated the speed in making the turn from Junipero Serra onto Alemany. He was uninjured, while a passenger, Linnean Raivo, 32, 863 Camaritas Circle, South San Francisco, suffered a sprained neck.

She was unconscious when police arrived and transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by M&D ambulance.

CALLAN FAILS TO DELIVER: ZONING NIXED

feels his firm would be acceptable to an altered grade. If this "slight adjustment can be worked out," he stated, "then we will settle the matter of trust deeds and start work on the road within 30 days."

Councilmen feel this statement of "immediate" work on the road isn't a guarantee. In fact, Callan's reluctance to finalize his agreement with the city Monday night was just the reverse of speeding the Eastmoor completion.

The city has been granted use of a temporary road by the school district until March next year. This route runs along the western edge of the M. Pauline Brown school site and will be lightly paved by the city at school district expense.

The prospect is critical because of this March 1 deadline. Eastmoor must be realigned by this time because the school district needs the land as part of the school site.

Callan must settle the two trust deeds — one for $46,000 owed to Caesar-Callan Corporation, and the other for $164,000 to McKee's Zita Corporation — before these firms can release title to the property, giving the city all the documents necessary for the realignment.

Asked for an opinion as to legal authority, City Attorney Paul Hupf declared that the council's action was valid since the road completion is the critical concern.

An ultimate step by the city could be condemnation action since its hands are tied until clear title is secured. Callan, by terms of a court settlement with Zita Corporation, has eight more months to settle the trust deed — $164,000 payment — with the McKees. Partial payment now to both Caesar-Callan and Zita could release the titles to the city.

Callan's dilemma, of course, is that the council action to remove the C-1 and apartment zoning would ruin his proposed shopping center, or at least force him to initiate new zoning requests — a move that will meet with council and citizen opposition until Callan realigns the road.

Public Works Director Otis Calhoun set a grade of about 1 percent on Eastmoor in front of Callan's intended shopping center. Callan wants a grade of about 3 percent, claiming a lesser grade would necessitate retaining walls and would make access to his development difficult. McKee Company, however, is full satisfied with Calhoun's and the council-adopted grade.

McKee's share of the realignment, including the half of the road on the north side of Eastmoor, will amount to

Hi-Fi Teeners Slate Picnic At Cupertino

The Hi-Fi Teen Club sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation is holding a picnic this Saturday, August 15, at Blackberry Farm in Cupertino.

Approximately 140 members are planning to attend this event. The group will leave the War Memorial Community Center at 8:30 a.m. and return to Daly City at 8:30 p.m.

Four members of the Teen Club Executive Council attended the Second Northern California Youth Council Planning Conference last Saturday. This conference was to formulate final plans for the annual Astor Conference, on October 2, 3 and 4. The Hi-Fi Teen Club will handle the Friday afternoon, recreation period and the Saturday night dance. Ernie Montoya, Dodi Spinetti, Charlie Rivera and Irwin Wong were the local members who attended.

Moving Costs Go Up When Camera Is Gone

Howard J. Garden, 42, 228 Palisades drive is minus a camera and flash equipment valued at $80 as a result of his move to Westlake.

Garden reported to police last Tuesday that the camera was missing from a box he had packed it in and placed in the basement. He noticed the theft while unpacking his gear. He said the camera was taken between July 25 and August 3.

'Beartracks' Foiled Again—Booze Court

Henry "Beartracks" Mack, 42, was arrested by police Sunday after Gene Groener, 289 Los Olivos avenue, said he saw Mack purchase a six-pack of beer and give the brew to a juvenile who gave Mack one can of beer as his commission. Mack, who gave his occupation to police as a "bum," is said to have bought the ale from the New Westlake Market, 555 Knowles avenue, and handed five of the cans to the boy.

Police stated they have had numerous accounts of his buying liquor for teenagers but this was the first time a witness was available. He has one prior conviction, in 1955, for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, besides many arrests for vagrancy and being drunk. His bail was set at $50.

about 1/2 of the cost. George McKee Monday said his firm was ready to do its work on the realignment now, but the council felt the entire project should be done when Callan delivers clear title.

At this time and place, or at subsequent hearings, all interested parties may appear and be heard.

Bartender Is Victim Of $400 Burglary

Nicholas Rossetti, 34, a bartender who resides at 3320 San Jose avenue, told Officer Charles Munday that $400 worth of jewelry and cash was taken from his home between 10 a.m. Friday and 8:15 a.m. Saturday.

A small glass window was broken in the front garage door and between $200 and $300 in cash was taken from Rossetti's bedroom bureau drawer as well as a wristwatch valued at $90 and three rings approximated at $20 each.

Munday said he believes the thief knew Rossetti as the articles were taken from this one location and other valuables were untouched.

300 DC KIDS AT SF BEACH

Last week more than 300 youngsters participated in the annual Roller Skating Party sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation.

Thrills and spills made up the program at the skating rink while fun and laughter arose from the visit to Playland. Once again, the fun house provided a barrel of excitement.

Girl's Screams Scare Attacker

Police were searching for a red and white hardtop with one tail-light out after a 22-year-old girl's screams scared the would-be attacker off Thursday at 1 a.m.

Rosita M. Allen, 185 Peoria street, said she got off a bus and noticed the car, which passed her twice while she was walking on Mission street, being driven by an approximately 23-year-old white jacketed man. The 5-8, 185-pounder parked his car on Winchester street and bumped into the girl after turning the corner at Evergreen avenue.

Miss Allen said the man tried to quiet her by placing his hand over her mouth and attempted to pull her toward his parked car. She fell and yelled for help. He told her to "shut up" twice and then fled in his car.

Gary Wills, 408 Winchester street, heard the girl screaming and called police.

and pushed him back against a wall. He was handcuffed and brought back to the scene of the burglary.

Horace and his partner had broken a rear skylight and dropped into the rear of the shop. They used the crowbar to pull nails out of a door leading to the rear steps. Horace refused to talk about the crime and Wetmore said the man lied when replying to most questions asked him.

Horace would not state who was with him but did admit he had a partner in the crime. A grey panel truck was found parked on Mission street, just south of the TV Shop. A 21 inch TV set and portable stereo table model phonograph were inside the truck.

Percy Williams, 131 Santa Cruz avenue, and Robert Nizuk, 335 Willits street, owners of the store, identified the appliances as belonging to their store and said other items had been moved about.

Horace, 1530 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco, was booked for burglary and violation of parole.

Ryan's committee "though Ryan's action doesn't represent the thinking of his committee as a whole," asked that Verducci accept the appointment and the DC council to give their endorsement to Ryan's plan.

In the council chamber, St. Clair got unanimous backing for the resolution to supervisors, and noted: "A north county-wide citizens' committee to study the hospital is the only logical course. I thought that Ryan understood this was our intention."

Ryan, apparently not too sure of the unanimity of his own group, reportedly has been trying to sidetrack both DC hospital committees. His letter to councilmen here Monday, also issued as a press release to Peninsula newspapers, appeared to be in the form of a "laudatory" expression of interest. But DC officials feel Ryan, a stated political hopeful, still wants to take the lead.

TAX LEVY TO STAY THE SAME FOR SM COLLEGE DISTRICT

No increase in tax levy is needed to meet the 1959-60 budget of the San Mateo Junior College District adopted August 5 by the Board of Trustees.

The operating budget will total $2,082,072, an increase of $409,096, of which $295,019 will go into undistributed and special reserves. The operating budget will be carried by the base tax rate of .35 per $100 assessed valuation, with certified ar non-certified retirement adding .016, a decrease of one mill from the 1958-59 rate. The total operating budget will show a real increase of only $114,077, including ten and one half additional teaching positions and a three percent salary increase for personnel.

Significant factors in District finance policy were noted by Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, College of San Mateo President, at the hearing of the public on the budget. Nearly four million dollars in District reserves has been accumulated in recent years, $2,211,051 of that sum since 1956. $1,832,253 was spent during 1957-58 to acquire the College Heights site and northern site. At the end of the 1959-60 school year, there will still be $2,050,064 in the reserves.

Dr. Bortolazzo pointed out that the District is holding the line on operating expenses, while adding to the reserve funds necessary to augment the $5,000,000 bond issue voted in 1957 for the College Heights campus and purchase of the northern site.

Assessed valuations for 1959-60 for the San Mateo Junior College District are set at $377,415,200, an increase of 9.2 percent over 1958-59.

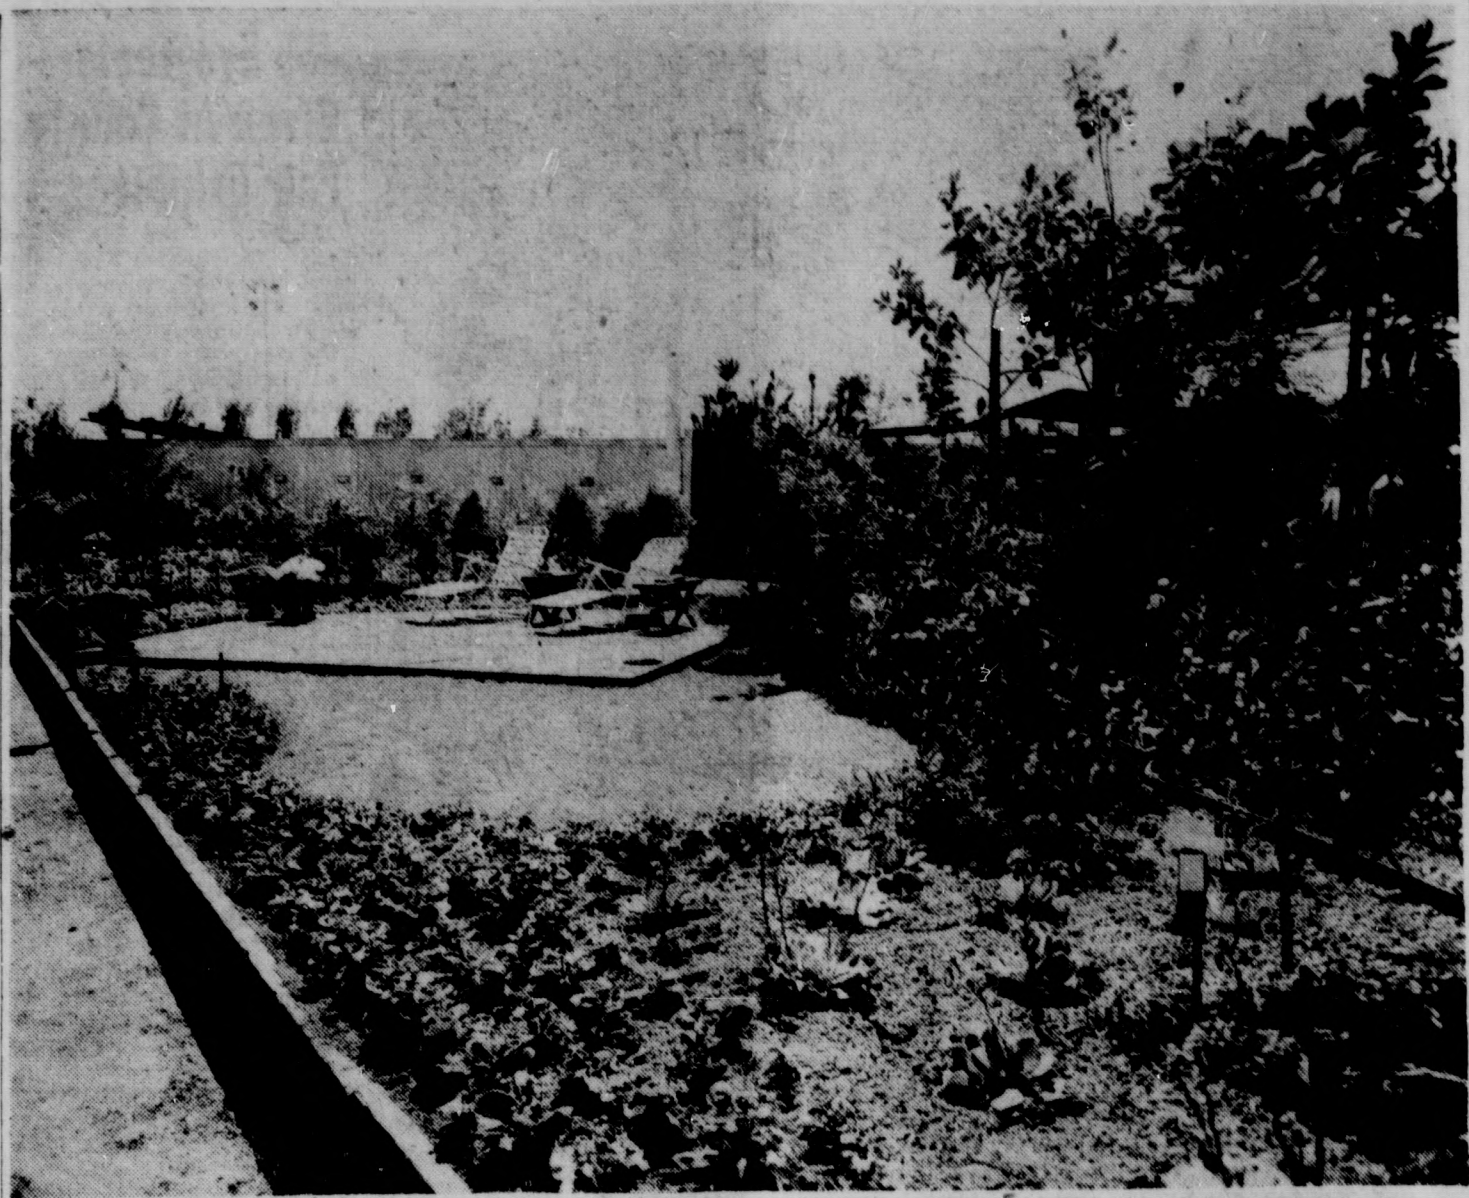

In other unfinished business, continued study of new campus planning included presentation of Planetarium revisions by representatives of John Warnecke and Associates. Present plans show the use of three base units replacing the original four, with only slight increase in the size of units. Further discussion of the Planetarium plan is scheduled for the August 12 meeting following review and report of the educational specifications for the structure.

Adjusted square footage figures for College Heights were presented. Excluding maintenance and horticulture units, the gross figure now totals 436,756 square feet, a reduction from earlier estimates. Throughout the preliminaries there has been no increase in educational space or exterior dimensions of buildings.

In preparation for possible acceptance of preliminary drawings at the meeting of August 19, Board members were given the thirty - three page study draft, including descriptions of foundations, substructures, superstructure, exterior and interior materials

LOCAL LEATHERNECKS 7th Infantry Battalion Marine Reservists Await Summer Camp

The Seventh Infantry Battalion, United States Marine Corps Reserve, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Ralph A. Weller of San Mateo, will leave for annual summer training this Saturday.

The battalion will depart from the San Bruno Training Center at approximately 9 o'clock in the morning. At approximately 5:30 o'clock the battalion will arrive at the Marine Corps Cold Weather Training Center, located at Pickle Meadows, high in the Sierra mountains.

For the past few years the local citizenry of San Bruno, Redwood City, South San Francisco, Burlingame, Belmont, San Carlos, Daly City and Millbrae have made arrangements for "send-off ceremonies". This year the departure time is much earlier than in previous years and no formal "send off" will take place. However, several city officials of the Peninsula communities have been asked to visit the training center Saturday while the battalion prepares for departure to the high Sierras. Friends and relatives are also invited to witness the departure of the reserve battalion.

This year's summer training as in the past will be the culmination of a years training at the local training center. Ordinarily, the battalion would depart for Camp Pendleton in southern California for Infantry Training, but this year the two weeks training will be of a varying nature in addition to Infantry maneuvers. Training will terminate with a three day "Mountain War" with emphasis on small unit tactics against an "aggressor force".

The battalion expects to return to San Bruno on August 29 at approximately 4:30 in the afternoon.

St. Michael's Again Captures Knights' Award

Students at St. Michael's grammar school have won the Daly City Council Knights of Columbus award for three out of the four years the annual award has been given.

Most important to Frances Benson, 827 Capitol avenue, Ingleside, was the fact that Frances Benson won the $150 award which will give her a flying start at Mercy High School in September. The award was given by Grand Knight Charles Vance last week.

Vance said the scholarship is given to students based on deserving student training as recommended by the Catholic grammar school teachers as well as need of the student.

VETERANS WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN

Important Questions Answered By VA

Q. I am nineteen years old, the son of a veteran who died as a result of injuries received in World War Two. I am thinking of taking War Orphans training under the War Orphans Education Act, but am wondering if my mother still being alive would mean I am not eligible. Will you please tell me?

A. The fact your mother is living has no bearing on your eligibility for War Orphans training. You would be considered a War Orphan for purposes of this act, since your veteran - father died as a result of war service.

Q. I named the beneficiaries of my GI insurance policy some time ago, but never did specify the method of payment. If I should die while the method of payment is still undesignated, how would the insurance money be paid out?

A. It would be paid in 36 equal installments. However, your first beneficiary would have the right to choose payments under any other installment plan available.

Q. Can a World War One veteran with less than 90 days' service ever be eligible for a VA pension?

A. If the veteran had been discharged sooner, for a service - connected disability, that would be possible, yes. He could be eligible for pension.

Q. I am a War Orphan, eligible for training under the VA War Orphan's program. Is this only a college program, or could I take a vocational course? I quit high school of my own accord in my senior year.

A. You would be eligible for specialized vocational or trade school training, if you prefer. College training is only one type of training provided.

The Town Record

By ROY HURLBERT

The Dodgers can have Los Angeles. And vice versa.

Smogville and the Sunset Strip, our vacation destinations, convinced us for keeps there's no place like home. The fog never looked so good.

LA is the only place on earth where freeways are a pleasure. They help you get out of the Big Burg quickly.

Inflamed by the Eastmoor avenue realignment mess, the newly settled residents of McKean's St. Francis Heights have formed an association, headed by Al Bellester.

St. Francis has had more audience representation at city council meetings the past two months than any other DC neighborhood group.

Woman last Monday night asked councilmen to be a bit more "audible" in their remarks and to please use the microphones.

Only Bob St. Clair's booming baritone is strong enough to be heard without benefit of the mikes.

Last week we watched St. Clair sweat at the 49er training camp in Moraga.

Pappy Waldorf, chief scout for the SF pros, told us that 260-pound Robert is the most versatile (and highest paid) lineman in the game.

Switching to defensive end this year, St. Clair is subject to more hurts. It's always easier to work on offense. On defense, you have to battle three or four guys before you get to the ball carrier.

We also toured the County Fair.

Too bad only Daly City and Pacifica took the time to prepare exhibits on their communities.

Again, the Floral Fiesta stole the show.

The fair was fair but could be better if all 16 cities would get off the dime.

Can't figure out these foreign newspapers. First, we read that DC manager George Watts had instituted a "unique coffee break" for all city personnel.

Actually, this isn't a new policy, at all.

Second, another North Peninsula paper copied almost word for word a story in this publication on the Eastmoor road problem facing the council.

Either these outside papers figure our stories are extremely accurate or their reporters are just too lazy to get the news on their own.

In either case, it's bad practice.

Wesley "Monte" Dayton, advertising manager for Marchbanks Publications, had four kids ask for his autograph last Friday in Westlake.

Like so many others, they mistook the dapper guy for Bing Crosby.

The younger version of Der Bingo, of course.

Rotary Hosts High Official Here Next Week

Local Rotarians will host the governor of California's North-west district next Wednesday, August 19, when Walter J. "Jim" Hamilton makes his annual official visit to Daly City.

Dr. Hamilton will address the local club and also confer on Rotary administration and service activities with newly-installed president Ted Harris, secretary Dr. Louis Mink and committee chairman.

The visiting official was elected governor of this Rotary International district for 1959-60 at Rotary's 50th annual convention in New York City last June. He is one of 261 governors nationally supervising the activities of some 10,200 Rotary clubs in 113 countries throughout the world. Membership of the clubs is nearly 500,000.

Walter J. Hamilton

A resident and practicing pediatrician in San Carlos, Dr. Hamilton has long been active in Peninsula Rotary and medical affairs. He is a veteran of World War II combat in the Pacific theatre, serving as a major in the Army Medical Corps.

Next week's Rotary session will return to the regular meeting place, Westlake Joe's, after meeting temporarily for two weeks at the Westlake Bowl banquet room while Joe's was undergoing remodeling.

Also included on the August 19 program will be a life sketch by Jack Kendree. Al Belotz will serve as fine master.

On August 26, Hoke Garrison will act as program chairman, George Watts as fine master.

Collegians Stop At City Hall In 'Hiroshima Walk' Last Week

A group of nine San Jose State students passed through Daly City last Wednesday on their walk to Union Square in conjunction with their "Hiroshima Walk" which approximated more than 50 miles.

The "Hiroshima Walk" was dated 14 years to the date of the first atomic bomb dropping on August 6, 1945. A handbill stated, "We walk to assert that policies based on preparation for other Hiroshima's won't stop wars; threatening death to millions of women and children doesn't aid freedom; and preparing for war won't bring peace."

The sign-carrying group left notices for City Manager George Watts, Mayor Ed Dennis and other officials as well as stopping off at local establishments.

Allen Carrico, leader of the group, said they were welcomed by San Bruno officials, the president of Stanford University, Finley Carter, director of the Stanford research laboratory; Palo Alto dignitaries, and met San Francisco Mayor George Christopher Thursday.

The group's walk started Sunday and ended Thursday afternoon at Union Square. The only complaints that were uttered by sun-dressed females was that the sun was tanning them a bit too much.

The walk was in cooperation with the Acts for Peace organization in Berkeley.

'Friends Of Library' Announce Many Projects For New Season

With the fall season rapidly approaching, plans are already in the making for an accelerated program for Daly City's "Friends of the Library."

Heading up the list of new officers, Mrs. Howard Stites, president, will have the following planning associates: Vice President, Mrs. Herbert Tweedie; Recording Secretary, Mrs. U. R. Kendree; Corresponding, Mrs. Julian D. Cohn, and Treasurer, Rev. Fred L. Fanthorpe.

A comprehensive policy of liaison and cooperation with other cultural groups has been established as the new objective, and it is hoped that by this means a greater exchange will be effected among the organizations in the city, whose purposes are in common. Along those lines an exhibit is being planned for participation in the Daly City Garden Club's annual Flower Show, soon to be held in the War Memorial Community Center.

Mrs. Julian D. Cohn, chairman of a special committee, is working closely with the library staff in formulating plans for awards to the children who successfully complete the summer reading program. More details will be forthcoming later.

A membership drive, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Orloff, is reported in the offing so that this organization may continue to serve both the individual and the library itself, in those many ways which ensure adequacy and contribute services.

With the untiring efforts of the officers and support of the membership over the past several years, "Friends" has accomplished a great deal, and encouraged further by the fact that the organization will be in good shape to assume the challenge which a new library will certainly present.

The next meeting of Friends of the Library is slated for September 30, when Dr. Julio Bortolozzo, president of the College of San Mateo, will be guest speaker. This will be a very informative meeting and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Camp Sonora

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS EVEN PAN FOR GOLD IN HIGH SIERRAS

By Servart Ojakian

Ever try panning for real gold and then come up with fool's gold? That's what some of the Girl Scouts did at the PG&E stream at Camp Sonora in the High Sierras.

The region in which the Girl Scouts have their camp is near the old Gold Rush country and in order to make the picture more complete the Scouts have two pet burros in camp.

The older burro, Trefie, is quiet and friendly and glad to give the kids a ride. Fly-up, the younger burro, is quite frisky and independent.

After a Girl Scout has completed her camp session, she may purchase a badge pin with a burro's picture on it to wear on her camp uniform.

The third session of Camp Sonora, the established camp for the North San Mateo County Girl Scouts, was completed last week and the fourth and last session is from August 10 to 22.

Each session has accommodated more than 80 girls who have been having a great time living out-of-doors. A typical day in camp is spent in doing various chores around a camp unit, lashing, practicing skills, swimming in the pool either day or night, hiking, singing around a campfire.

The Girl Scouts also have an hour rest in the afternoon when they read, write letters, or just loaf.

Though the temperatures soared to as high as 109 degrees at times, the girls knew how to relax and enjoy themselves. The Girl Scouts who have been to Sonora once like to go again and again. It's so much fun.

A BAD PLACE TO DRIVE

If you happen to be driving at the end of a long line of cars and the line comes to a sudden stop, you will have more difficulty than the other drivers in coming to a stop in time, warns the National Automobile Club. Not only are you in a poor position to see when the stopping starts, but there is a sort of snap-the-strap action at the end of the line that makes the stopping more abrupt and more dangerous.

455 Eye Tests Given At County Fair Exhibit

Members of the San Mateo County Optometric Society gave motorists vision screenings to 455 persons at the society's exhibit at the San Mateo County Fair during the first six days of the fair. Dr. Norman G. Licht, exhibit committee chairman, said today.

Of the total, the vision specialists found that 92 had defective visual acuity (the ability to see clearly), 10 had defective distance phoria (eye coordination), 22 had defective color vision, and 18 defective field of vision (the ability to see to the sides when looking straight ahead).

Dr. Licht emphasized that the screening tests, given by the members of the optometric society as a public service, do not constitute a complete eye examination nor even a check on all of the visual skills used in driving.

"The fact that anyone passes the four tests given in the screening process does not necessarily mean the person has perfect or even adequate vision. However, if they fail one or more of the tests—with the exception of the color perception test—we would recommend they see their family vision specialist for a complete eye examination."

He pointed out that defects in visual acuity or distance phoria usually are wholly or partially correctable and that defective field of vision sometimes is correctable, but nothing can be done to improve defective color perception.

Among the optometrists giving the screenings at the exhibit were Robert A. Rockstein of Pacifica and Harold Garrett of Daly City.

Ground Broken For Anglers Access Project

Ground was broken last Thursday on a $238,000 Wildlife Conservation Board anglers' access project at Nacimiento Reservoir in San Luis Obispo County, 10 miles west of San Miguel.

The project will include boat launching ramps, parking areas, boat docks and access roads.

The reservoir is owned and operated by the Monterey County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, which will pay for maintenance and operation of the project from fees to be charged for parking (50 cents per day, $4.00 per year) and boat launching ($1.00 per day, $4.00 per year). Such revenues may also be used for further recreational development. Planning to spend more, the district has already spent over $300,000 for recreational development.

Under an agreement reached among various groups, the area 300 feet from shore, plus many coves and arms of the reservoir, are to be reserved for fishing. Speedboats and water skiers will use only channels in this zone to obtain access to unrestricted areas. No boat is permitted within 100 feet of other boats, including those from which people are fishing or skiing, and boats may not pass within 100 feet of swimmers.

Classes on Sunday mornings will continue to meet at the Westlake Elementary School, featuring the most modern classroom facilities and located conveniently within reach of the outlying districts of San Francisco and the Northern Peninsula.

The Religious School is under the supervision of an excellent superintendent and faculty, and the curriculum is arranged and co-ordinated according to the interest and development of the needs of each individual student.

It is of interest to note that membership in Congregation Judea, includes Religious School and seats for the High Holy Days. In addition to these features, Temple Judea is noted for its outstanding Sisterhood and many other Temple activities. The latest addition to the congregation is the re-organization of its high school youth group, "JOY," Judea Organization of Youth. In addition to the above, Temple Judea, widely known as a "singing congregation," holds Sabbath Eve Services every Friday night at 8:30 at the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair in Westlake. Announce Arrival Of 12-Ft. Reptile At SF Aquarium

Twelve feet of death arrived yesterday at the Steinhart Aquarium in Golden Gate Park. An anaconda, four yards long, was flown to the California Academy of Sciences from the heart of the anaconda country in the state of Caqueta, Colombia, South America.

The vicious greenish-yellow snake was a gift of Maurice Rakowicz and Ken Staley, owners of the Colombia Aquarium in Hayward. The donors maintain a collecting station in South America and fly their specimens to the United States in a modified B-25.

Anocondas are the largest snake in bulk in the world and can attain the greatest heaviness. They are semi-aquatic in nature and have been known to reach a length of 25 feet. Though nonpoisonous they are capable of inflicting a highly painful bite, and as constrictors, take second place to none.

It is on record that 72 baby anocondas, each 3 feet 2 inches long, arrived at one birth.

This newest name on the roster of reptiles at Steinhart Aquarium may be seen in a case in the indoor swamp.

FOUR-DAY SESSION

DC Congregation Among Throng Of 10,242 At Jehovah Convention

Daily City delegates to the August 6-9 "Awake Ministers District Assembly" of Jehovah's Witnesses held at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds have returned home to put into use the new things they learned.

An overflow crowd of 10,242 were present as Eugene D. Rosam Jr., supervisor for the Witnesses' Pacific Coast District, delivered the climactic public address, "When God Speaks Peace to All Nations."

In a stinging indictment of world forces today, Rosam said, "Whatever desperate arrangements national leaders may be driven to create they will be no more workable than those of the past." The New York minister told his audience that the only hope for mankind is in God's now established heavenly kingdom. "It is now," Rosam declared, "that God speaks peace by means of his enthroned King Christ Jesus, the 'Prince of Peace'."

Though held principally to instruct members of the 60 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Area south to King City, delegates from 25 states, Canada and Mexico were present to benefit from the program.

At a mass baptismal service on Saturday, 198 new ministers were immersed in symbol of their vow dedicating their lives to God.

Harold E. Casperson, presiding minister of the Daily City Congregation, stated that the regular meeting schedule would be resumed this week at the Kingdom Hall, 206 Plymouth avenue. The program will be devoted to reviewing assembly instructions and counsel. He extended an invitation to all to be present for the resume of the convention program. Practical application of the scriptural counsel will be applied in the home visitations made by local Witnesses, he explained.

On August 3, 1942, Mildred Helen MacFee was commissioned a lieutenant in the Navy to become the first woman officer of that service, later heading the WAVES.

There are 3700 Red Cross chapters in America with over 2,000,000 volunteers doing the bulk of the work.

'Police Ball' Tickets Now In The Mail

Tickets were in the mail today to Peninsula residents for the thirty-first annual Police-man's Ball to be held September 12 at 9 p.m. at Bay Meadows clubhouse in San Mateo.

All proceeds from the sales of tickets will go to the widows and orphans fund of the Peninsula Police Officers Association, according to Fratis Link, president of the association.

"The tragic death last week of Hillsborough Officer Gene Doran points up the need for public support of the widows and orphans fund," said Link. "This dance is our only means of raising the money which we pay out to relatives of deceased officers."

The association covers the cities of Atherton, Burlingame, Belmont, Colma, Daly City, Hillsborough, Menlo Park, Millbrae, Mountain View, Redwood City, San Bruno, San Carlos, San Mateo, South San Francisco and Sunnyvale.

Chairman of the annual dance is Officer Donald Pearson of San Mateo. He will be assisted by James Allen, Robert Haller, Jim Smith, Lieut. Lorin Todd, Peter Fena and George Andreasen.

The popular orchestra of Russ Anthony will play for the dance.

This will be narrated by Joseph Casoly, of the Executive Department of Southern Pacific Company, announced Miss Lois Gallagher, newly appointed Program Chairman of the Chapter.

Casoly of Southern Pacific, who, incidentally has been with the company for 35 years - is extremely interested in early California history, and his hobby for many years has been collecting historical material about early California missions, railroads, shipping, etc., as well as other early California lore.

His presentation will be a pictorial history of San Francisco, tracing its development from 1776, with a factual commentary on early landmarks, the 1906 earthquake, and some early California customs; then leading up to San Francisco life at the present time.

The American Business Women's Association, nationally, in its 10th successful year, numbers about 12,000 members, with 200 active Chapters, in 45 States. The organization is an education and community service organization, and one of its major aims is directed toward the improvement of employer - employee relations. Members also work on community service projects, and enjoy social programs throughout the year.

For further particulars on membership, women may phone Mrs. Laila Porterfield Gasho, a Westlake resident, at Plaza 5-1176. Mrs. Gasho is Corresponding Secretary of the Chapter.

The dinner meeting will start at 7:00 p.m., preceded by a cocktail and social hour at 6 p.m.

DC Folks Stamp Impression At San Mateo Fair

The San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta was well represented by many Daly City folks.

Among the more notable was Mr. Ray Lorenzato, Jefferson High School art teacher and member of the Jefferson High PTA.

He had several modernistic art pieces in a garden setting. One of the handsomest, "Mosaic Pads", was indeed a conversation piece. It was design made of different shapes, colors, and sizes of rocks set in concrete of a circular shape.

Lorenzato also had several metal sculptures, one being set in a pool of water. His three "Sculptured Panels" were set up in a wall.

Mrs. Annie Kohlhauf from Colma won first prize for her arrangement, "A Fisherman's Dream", and second award for a Modern Ornamental Design.

The Daly City Garden Club won a 2nd prize for an "After the Ball" arrangement.

Two modern oil paintings by Helen M. Cordell, Art coordinator for the Jefferson Elementary School District were hung in the art gallery. Her "Carnival" won an honorable mention ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marquez, members of the Daly City Garden Club, and Jefferson High School PTA members, were in charge of a floral booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kusber, also Jefferson High PTA members, were in the Fuchsia booth.

Supervisors OK $18,000 Study On Skyline For National Parkway

Development of Skyline blvd. as a national parkway was given impetus this week when supervisors of four counties met in San Mateo to sign a contract with a Milbrae engineering firm for a study of the project.

Supervisor William C. Blake of San Francisco said this is the first time a county or group of counties in the western United States "has ever gone this far" toward establishment of a parkway.

The proposed parkway, from San Francisco to Santa Cruz, will be patterned after the 300 mile Blue Ridge Parkway in Virginia and North Carolina.

The $18,000 contract was signed with the firm of Wilsey and Ham, Engineers and Planners. The project will be under the direction of Charles T. Blair, company vice president, assisted by Robert S. Reed, assistant to the president, and Jack E. Van Zandt, project supervisor.

San Mateo and San Francisco counties will each pay $7,000 and Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties will pay $2,000 each.

The project will be financed by federal road funds. Highways are eligible for assistance only if they pass through scenic country, follow contours to exploit for natural scenic beauties of the countryside, and are reserved for use only by automobiles.

Supervisors agreed to appoint two men from each county to form a coordinating committee to work with the project supervisor. Chairman William M. Werber named Planning Director Frank S. Skillman and Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch to represent San Mateo County.

Blake said parkways in the past have been peculiar to the east. There are none west of the Mississippi River. It has been hard to get numerous jurisdictions together to develop such a program, he said.

The get-together in San Mateo was the climax of a series of meetings to discuss the program.

The study is expected to take four months. The firm has been asked to propose routes and alternate routes, cost estimates and proposed legislation.

Werber said officials are hopeful of presenting legislation in congress next January authorizing the necessary funds.

The coordinating committee will meet with congressmen from the four counties as soon as the group is organized and has a briefing session.

Mrs. John E. White, Jr., San Mateo, models chairman, has acceptances from the following to show cruise and winter fashions:

Mesdames Frank Alioto Jr., Hillsdale; John F. Barrett Jr. and C. M. Buckley, San Mateo; Thomas R. Dwyer, San Francisco; Dennis Hession, Woodside; William Lang Jr., Atherton; John Lynch, San Mateo; William Moore, Atherton; Scott Morrison and Robert Tuck, Hillsborough; Miss Janet King, San Francisco, and Micheline of Paris, recently of the Dior and Fath salons.

Mrs. Ralph K. Davies, honorary chairman, is arranging special parking and transportation facilities at her place on Lakeview drive, off Woodside road. Mary Claire Hickey of Woodside will be commentator.

Father Thomas Regan, social service director, explains that the United Crusade agency needs extra funds from the fashion show to meet costs of a rapidly mounting caseload.

Arkansas became a state in 1836, seceded in 1861, and was readmitted to the Union in 1868.

Educators To Study Schools In Philippines

Three faculty members from the University of California's School of Education at Berkeley have been selected to make a comprehensive study of elementary and secondary education in the Philippine Islands.

The University of California educators are among six from institutions throughout the country participating in the study, which is already in progress. Most of them will spend about six months in the Philippines.

J. Chester Swanson, professor of education at Berkeley, will coordinate the entire study, as well as make a special analysis of vocational education.

The two other Berkeley faculty members selected are John U. Michaelis and Edgar L. Morphet, both professors of education. Michaelis will be responsible for an intensive analysis of the social studies program and for the comprehensive study of elementary education. He has previously worked on surveys in a number of states in this country, and is the author of widely used textbooks in his field.

Professor Morphet will be responsible for studying the financial and economic problems facing the schools. He has directed studies in approximately half of the states and is the author of books in educational administration and finance.

The study has been planned by the International Cooperation Administration and the Philippine Government, and is the first of its type in a number of years.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

With a cheery "goodmorn-ing ladies" and the background of a gay and lilting tune, another "Jack La Lanne Show" is on the TV lanes over KPIX. An expert in the field of exercise and nutrition, Jack is without doubt one of the most dynamic television personalities that have ever interviewed.

Completely sincere, he has a genuine interest in the viewer and certainly conveys this sincerity over the air as he keeps the program moving merrily along.

We think KPIX's program department showed very good judgment in scheduling the program at nine in the morning, usually the family has left for work and school, and yet the program hasn't started on a household task so she has to interrupt what she is doing, to make watching the program a daily habit, and regardless of that you think of exercise, we're sure you won't be able to resist... you'll find yourself ending and stretching right along with him.

Convenient too, for the busy homemaker is the new time for the KQED previews of evening shows, now shown daily at 4:30 p.m. Plan to take a daily after-noon coffee break, and watch a most stimulating series of programs at this time, Mondays through Fridays.

Good news for the tricycles... the award-winning series "Ding Dong School" returns to the TV lanes on KTVU beginning September 14 at 1:30 a.m. There is a desperate need for programs for pre-schoolers in the morning hours, and we heartily endorse a program such as "Ding Dong School" which is educational as well as highly entertaining.

Sorry to report that the San Francisco origination of the Dick Clark Show from Fishman's Wharf over ABC, KGO-TV had to be cancelled because of a delay of the movie starring Clark which is being filmed in Hollywood. What we said about more network shows originating here still goes through, and we hope they will emanate from San Francisco origins in the future.

The Marine Corps reached a maximum strength of 75,101 during World War I. Word that peak strength of 485,113 was reached in World War II came on August 31, 1945.

Horse mounted patrols were employed by U. S. Marines in Santo Domingo and later in Nicaragua.

Mrs. Fred DeBow, membership chairman, is in charge of this first affair of the fall season. She is being assisted by Mrs. J. Urbach, Mrs. A. LaPedis and Mrs. B. Wyner, are in charge of decorations. Mrs. Morton Levinson is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. DeBow urged residents of the Westlake-Daly City area to attend. Anyone interested should call Mrs. DeBow at PL 5-0455.

HOUSEWIFE, 39, IN SUICIDE TRY WITH PAIN PILLS

Lucile New, 39, 73 Station avenue, reportedly attempted suicide at 4 a.m. Monday by taking a number of pain relieving pills, Daly City police said.

Judy Smallwood, 16, daughter of the woman, reported to police that she saw her mother fully clothed lying across the bed and breathing with difficulty. The woman was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital and transferred to San Mateo Community Hospital where a 72-hour hold was placed on her by police.

Daly City police said Miss Smallwood produced a letter in her mother's handwriting to a man named "Eddie" which started out, "I'm sick and I just don't feel like living any more since I've had to give you up."

ENGLISH WOMAN AIDS MILLS HOSPITAL FUND

A gift from a titled English woman who formerly lived in San Mateo has just been received by the Mills Memorial Hospital Development Fund. According to A. L. Stoner, general chairman of the community wide solicitation to raise $1,500,000 for desperately needed hospital beds and facilities, Lady Jean Ward of London, England, has just made a substantial memorial contribution.

The gift will be used to help establish a permanent memorial in honor of Mrs. Elisabeth Mills Reid, the founder of the hospital. Lady Ward is the daughter of Mrs. Reid. Several other members of the Mills and Reid families have also made gifts toward this memorial.

SANTA'S VILLAGE AWAITS VISITOR NO. 1 MILLION

The one millionth visitor to Santa's Village, the colorful storybook town in the Santa Cruz mountains, will arrive—unsuspectingly—sometime in August, according to Santa Claus himself.

Santa, who keeps tabs on the number of persons who have come to see his year-round home, said that attendance figures indicate that the millionth guest will walk through the gate at the Welcome House this month, to be greeted by a super-duper surprise.

Santa Claus is making plans for a gigantic welcome for the man, woman or child who is lucky enough to be number One Million. Among the many gifts that will be showered on the visitor will be a life-time pass to Santa's Village; jams, jellies and spices from Mrs. Claus' Kitchen; goodies from the Good Witch in the Gingerbread House and, if it's a small boy or girl, lots of things from Santa's toy and doll factories.

The popular land of whimsy and fantasy, which is located on the Los Gatos highway seven miles north of Santa Cruz, has been popular with tens of thousands of northern and central California families since its opening in 1957.

It is the only large-scale amusement attraction of its kind north of Los Angeles. In size and investment it rivals the top wonder attractions of Southern California.

Fuchsia Society President Won't Forget The Fair

John Rolih, president of the San Mateo Branch of the American Fuchsia Society, will long remember the 1959 San Mateo County Fair. Not only has his group won first prize and many blue ribbons but his pretty young wife has adopted the orphans of the Fiesta!

It seems that an East Bay nursery moved in a tall column of ivy, and amidst the confusion of arrangements, Mrs. Rolih discovered a nest with two hungry orphans screaming for "food" and "mother." All observers stated that the little fellows would die anyway, but nevertheless the nest went home; and Mrs. Rolih, armed with a positive approach and a full eye dropper of "Heaven-knows-what," took over the role of "mama bird." The Fuchsia Society is happy to report that this occurred two days before Fiesta opening, and the little guys are hale and hearty—now hopping about a cage but still yelling for meals. Mrs. Rolih cooperates with her trusy eye dropper every hour on the hour!

GOVERNOR CALLS STATE DISASTER COUNCIL MEETING

Governor Edmund G. Brown this Friday will attend a meeting of his statewide Disaster Council in Los Angeles.

The meeting has been called to consider means of increasing public support of the State's program of non-military defense.

The California Disaster Office's operational readiness in case of natural or war-caused emergency will be completely reviewed by the Council.

Harold G. Robinson, Director of the Disaster Office, today stressed the importance of the meeting because of the rapidly increasing disaster potential resulting from recent rampaging fires and possible water shortages throughout California.

Title of a report to be made by Robinson is: "Our Sleeves Are Still Rolled Up."

The continued need for disaster preparedness; survival in the missile age; means of achieving radiological safety; and the State's program for meeting natural disasters will be outlined. The Disaster Council will be asked to approve a strong program of non-military defense planned for the forthcoming year.

This Bursar will be presented by the State Regent Mrs. Edwin Clancy, of Alameda, to His Excellency, The Most Reverend John J. Mitty D. D., Arch Bishop of the San Francisco Archdiocese, of which the State Regent is a member, at the end of her term of office next spring.

It will be used as a lasting tribute from the Catholic Daughters of America to the Seminarians by being applied toward the new chapel at St. Joseph Seminary in Mountain View.

At the close of a most enjoyable evening, Mrs. Ello Clardella and Mrs. Edward Pribula assisted the hostess with serving refreshments from a gaily appointed table.

Sarto Softballers Hand Drugs 1st Loss

With one week left to play in order to qualify for the four-team playoff in the Adult Softball League, sponsored by the Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, Sarto Athletic Club scored a stunning upset as they defeated previously unbeaten Daly City Drugs, 6-3.

The loss knocked the Drugs down a game and into a tie with Ralph's Cleaners for first place. Barney Sherman for the Drugs struck out six and walked none, but was tagged for ten hits, three of them by Mickey Corso, who drove home two runs. Wayne Clay, Sarto's pitcher, scattered seven hits.

In a wild game played at Colma school, Ralph's Cleaners defeated Dan Goodwin Roofing Company, 12-8.

Ralph's capitalized on walks and three hits off the bat of shortstop Pat Cassidy. Goodwin Roofing outbatted the Cleaners, 10-9. J. Forgen, centerfielder for the roofers, collected three hits.

Consolidated Schools remained in the running by defeating last year's champions, Wm. Lagomarsino & Co., 6-5, with a four-run rally in the last of the seventh inning. Tom Gonzales, pitcher for Lagomarsino, was coasting along on a four-hitter until the roof fell in the seventh as a walk, three singles, a triple and a misjudged fly ball opened the gates for the Consolidated victory.

All applicants must be United States citizens, bona fide residents of California, over 16 years of age, and must not have been issued an antelope permit during the last 10 years.

Each permit will allow the hunter to take, by means of legal firearm or bow and arrow, one adult male antelope with horns longer than its ears.

BOWLING ROUNDUP

Spares And Splits Always Add Up To 'Win Or Lose' On Lanes

By LEON COHN

"That split cost us the ball game."

As a bowler, how often have you heard this phrase? Not only by your teammates, but also by your friends who come down to root for your team.

The saying is directed mostly against the anchor man. As if it is his fault to be the unfortunate one to draw the split in the final frame and lose the game. Those bowling on the same team and their spectator friends do not seem to realize the fact that a missed spare or split in the earlier frames help to lose a game.

An incident as this took place on Johnny Swanson's Westlake lanes. And in fairness to the anchor on any team, let us not condemn him or her for missing a spare or drawing a split to lose the game. Remember, it is a team effort and no one person has ever won or lost a bowling game. All scores count in the final analysis.

Speaking of analysis, when is someone going to analyze the bowlers? Especially those who come up with scores that make them a champion for a game or two and in the next breath a novice.

Bill Dillon, rolling for the Mission Cleaners in the Trio Mixed loop, got away from the starting gate with games of 235 and 197. And in the stretch run for home lost his speed or zip and had 134 and 178 for 741. At least wife Verle was consistent. Three 176 games and a 151.

On the other hand, Babe DeLuca started with 136 and poured it on as he finished with 206 and 202 to enable the Charlie's Union five, in the Cocktail league, to sweep the three-game series against the ABC's.

WALTER WARD

'Hall Of Fame' Bowler To Show His Skill In Exhibition Here

Walter Ward, a member of the ABC Hall of Fame and a Brunswick Advisory Star, will appear August 23 and 24 in a special bowling exhibition at Swanson's Westlake Bowl.

Ward, a cigar-chomping veteran of 30 years in bowling's big leagues, is a three-time winner of All-American tenpin honors and has been a victor or runner-up in over 100 major tournaments. In his hometown of Cleveland, Ward is a consistent title winner and league average leader.

There's no disputing Ward's phenomenal record because he

KROHN SWEATS OUT LAST INNING WIN

Barry Krohn, who did all but fix the water faucet at Balboa park, waited 'til the last inning with two outs before breathing easier as his Daly City Drugs teammates scored five runs for a one-run victory over Meyers Safety Switch in the North Peninsula baseball loop.

Betrayed by his mates who did some "plumbing" of their own, six errors, Krohn had fanned 13, allowed but two walks and five hits and connected for two safeties himself. Yet, he stood to be the losing pitcher as Joe Gualco of the Safety team had kept seven hits well scattered.

Then the leak opened in the final frame and the whole dike poured in on the Safety Switch nine.

Mike Maguire's bounder took a crazy hop, and the pinch hitter was perched on first base. George Claus beat out an infield single in between strikeouts by Bruce Usher and Krohn. Bill Hynes walked to generously populate all the bags.

Bill Hix's sharp grounder went for a single and a resulting error on the throw scored two runs. Dickie Schultz gained first on an error as Hynes scored the third run. Dan Mayer's long fly eluded Meyer's left fielder and both runners romped across the plate, Schultz scoring the decider.

Jack Fuentes homered to left field led Li'l Village to a 6-5 practice game win over the Drugs Sunday at Marchbanks. Jerry Mansfield was the winning pitcher while Brad Rothback absorbed the loss.

Skipper Crodo's triple and Sonny Stoller's double were the only extra base hits for the Creighton-Krohn kids.

Johnny Davis Speeds Past Own Time Records At Vet Age Of Eight

By LOU LUCIA

Johnny Davis Jr. is only eight years old but has broken three quarter midget race records, one of which was his own standard setting mark, while flashing along for the Daly City Saw Works sponsored car of owners Bob Foss and Don Araiza.

With black motorcycle jacket and a well disciplined countenance, Johnny has proceeded in workmanlike fashion to zip off 52 trophies in 85 races. A trophy is presented for each winning performance. He was entered in San Mateo County Fair competition last week.

Foss said Davis was ahead of the pack in a 30-lap race but lost out in the final oval when his car's points gave out.

He holds track records at San Jose, clipping 24 seconds off the previous low mark of 7:79; and the Redwood City race course, by lopping two seconds off the 7:83 timing. On July 31 he returned to the Redwood City track and smashed his own record by setting a 7:68 pace.

Foss said the blue quarter midget car with the large white "55" painted on it, will attain a speed of 35 miles per hour. There are five classes of midgets and this car, a junior modified stock quarter midget, is in the largest class.

Foss and Araiza said they were ex-motorcycle riders and their "love of tinkering with engines" led them to construct this car. They also built other smaller cars.

Johnny Davis Sr., 1160 Escalero avenue, Linda Mar, has been supervising his son's racing habits for the past eight months. A teamster, Davis watched his son drive in Lakport, Fort Bragg, San Jose, San Francisco, Sunnyvale, Hayward and Redwood City.

Each Friday night the Davis' show up at the quarter midget track just off the White street over-pass. All while drivers must belong to club and Johnny Jr. belongs to the Redwood City Quarter Mile Club.

Johnny will go to Las Vegas, Nevada, for the nationals November and then to Tucson, Arizona, for the Grand Nationals. The Foss-Araiza "stable" also has a second boy in its pits who's ready to move.

Bradford Lipkin, 9, 212 North street, South San Francisco, hasn't been in any race yet, but he's gaining sole experience.

DC's Ken Venturi To Vie With Top Flight Golfers

Daly City's Ken Venturi, one of 150 outstanding players who will be competing for $4,000 prize money at the Gold Gate Championship golf tournament at Harding Park from September 21 through 27.

Other star "teen-men" at Mike Souchak, Gene Little, Art Wall, Billy Casper, Byron Nelson and Bob Rosberg.

National and local celebrities supporting the championship matches who will be in attendance are Bing Crosby, Joe Raitt, Desi Arnaz, Johnny Weissmuller, Phil Harris, Frankie Albert and Lefty Dool.

Tickets at a $1 apiece will be available for a limited time or before the sale price shoots from $2 to $4. Daly City's office for the tickets is the Chamber of Commerce, 64 Mission street. Each ticket counted as a chance on prize valued at $20,000.

All proceeds of the tournament outside of the golf winners' award and prize money, will go toward the United Volunteers, a national charity organization with assistance programs at 79 veterans hospitals throughout the nation.

NUNES AND LUJAN BROS.

Three PAL Boxers Win Tri-City Bouts

Richard Nunes, Al and Joe Lujan of Daly City were victors in the PAL boxing matches held last Thursday between the local boxers and Vallejo and Redwood City clubs.

Nunes, 108 pounds, over-powered Malcolm Hall of Redwood City for a TKO victory while Joe Lujan, 68 pounds, defeated Mike Rest of Vallejo and Al, 82 pounds took care of Sammy Wilson of Redwood City.

Losers of decisions for Daly

City were James Lujan, 62 pounds, and Larry Mitchell, 136 pounds.

Boxing instructors for the Daly City crew were Jim Crudo and Ralph Matteucci.

An extra added attraction was the wrestling of Daly City firemen Gene Klinger and Bob Malcolm with Redwood City's Jerry and Larry Adams on Klinger and Jerry grappled to a draw while Adams won declared the winner over Malcolm.

San Mateo Blues Pitcher Chalks Up Win No. 17

Lowell "Porky" Creighton won his 17th game last Sunday by tossing a neat two hitter in 11½ innings of relief while his teammates scored three runs to defeat Nesbit Masonry, 4-3.

The Nesbit team won the tournament but Creighton's San Mateo Blues nine made a strong bid off the portly Creighton's arm.

The game was the longest in tournament play this year and it was mainly the hurling of Creighton that gave the Blues added life in the play-offs. Creighton entered with his team losing 3-1 and blanked the eventual state champs the rest of the way.

His pin-point control found no batters drawing bases on balls. His 13 strike-outs brought 273 would be swatters going down the drain for the year and he was selected to the All State Tournament Team for his outstanding performance.

Creighton is employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Several major league scouts are sending "feelers" out to Creighton to see if he is available for high classification ball.

His record for the year is 17-2, one of the losses being a 1-0 squeaker in which he struck out 15 batters.

The motor fuel used in the Iwo Jima campaign by Marines would have filled a train of tank cars 238 miles long and the lubricating oil used would have filled an additional 125 box cars.
